DOCUMENTARY CO-PRODUCTION MARKET

Definitions

This document is prepared to serve as a guideline for filling out the application form. Please read the definitions carefully before submitting your application to ensure that your submission materials meet our requirements.

Please note that all submission materials must be written in English, even if the final film is in a language other than English. Please note that to be accepted, all applications must adhere to the given word limit.

The submission requirements for the first stage of the Co-Production Market - Documentary 2023 application are:

1. GENRE : Please select the theme/s that you believe identifies with your story best. This could be tentative or initial themes at the time of applying.
2. LOGLINE (Max 40 words) : A logline is a short description that explains the WHO, WHAT and HOW of the story. Loglines are often published on websites or in program guides.
3. SHORT SYNOPSIS (Max 400 words) : The synopsis should provide an overview of the story, structure's main themes, storylines, and characters and demonstrate the unique perspective and approach you will take.
4. DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT (Max 200 words) : The director's statement should describe the project's directorial approach and why they chose this theme/subject.
5. PRODUCER'S NOTE (Max 200 words) : These are some points to take into consideration when writing the producer's statement:
  - The producer's understanding of the project
  - What the project ultimately stands to deliver to an audience
  - Reasons for collaborating with the director
  - Reason for choosing the project
  - Vision for the project
  - Justification of the budget
  - Reasons for seeking Co-Production
